 Step 5 : You can draw directly in black felt rather than with a pencil.

 eXplanation : Start by drawing the structure of the crown in pencil following the steps.

Then trace the structure of the black felt crown

Avoid overflowing and fine-tuning the spikes that are represented in the drawing (A black felt tip can be a problem).

Think of erasing the exponents of pencil after.

After that, fill the colors of the drawing.

This step does not simply require coloring the crown, additions of additional elements in the internal and external structure of the crown.
